Declaratory Judgment on my Legal Status and Legal Relations

Introduction

Pursuant to Rule 57: Declaratory Judgment Act, Tennessee Code Annotated 29-14-101 et seq Petitioner moves the court for a declaratory judgment and decree and declaratory relief, concerning the legal relationship, status, rights and duties and a determination of construction of instruments involving parties and petitioner's rights which are and have been affected by respondent's Acts.

Cause of Action

Petitioner believes his rights are being affected by statues, regulations and ordinances of the respondents and their political subdivisions and municipal corporations of the District of Columbia. These regulations are 47 U.S.C. 301 and 303(n).

Petitioner inquires to know his political and legal status per 2010 Tennessee Code Title 29 – Remedies and Special Proceedings Chapter 14 Declaratory Judgments 29-14-103.

1 – Petitioner seeks a determination of the construction or validity of the statues and ordinances 47 U.S.C. 301 and 303(n).

2 – Petitioner wishes to obtain a declaration of rights statues and legal relations under these statues and ordinances.

Petitioner is not schooled in law and reserves the right to update or make corrections in this document.
